

Our Ordinarily Available Provision in Religion and World Views

Lanercost Church of England Primary School
Care Believe Achieve
Live life in all its fullness - John 10:10

Our Ordinarily Available Provision focuses on a broad, balanced and relevant curriculum with high engagement of pupils. This includes:

- High quality teaching that is differentiated and personalised.
- High expectations of every pupil.
- Ambitious targets based on appropriate assessment and dialogue with pupils and parents.
- Potential areas of difficulty addressed and potential barriers to learning removed through the effective deployment of resources.
- Regular assessment, monitoring and review of children and young people's development and progress against targets and outcomes.

What will every classroom have for Religion and World Views?

- Access to pictures, texts, books, artefacts and videos to support learning.
- Clear displays which support the current learning, including Key Vocabulary.
- A well-organised classroom with labelled resources, including a time line and relevant non-fiction books for the topic studied.

What will the teaching staff do in order to support the universal offer in Religion and World Views?

- Understanding is checked by asking pupils what they have to do.
- Explicit modelling of expectations. An example would be modelled using key vocabulary.
- Instructions are given in small chunks with visual cues and dual coding.
- Make reference to the working wall and previously taught vocabulary.

Our all day, everyday offer

- Across every lesson, we have a strong focus on the importance of positive relationships.
- Through conversations and marking, effective use of praise for the celebration of all achievement focusing mainly on effort and progress.
- In every lesson, teaching assistants are planned for, and used, to maximise learning.
